FOR PRESIDENT,
That uncorrupted King of every Democratic heart,
SAMUEL J. TILDEN.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
Mr. Tilden's companion in Victory and in Humiliation,
THOMAS A. HENDRICKS.

ANNOUNCEMENT.
Richard Reid, of Mt. Sterling, is a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, to succeed Judge Hargis—subject to the action of the Democracy of the First Appellate District.

Millersburg (War) Department.

Was a chambermaid to blush unseen?
Now fall goods now flaunt in the show windows.

Miss Charlotte Vimont is visiting her aunt, in Lexington.

H. H. Hunt will invest all of his capital in Colorado mines.

Wm. Davis and A. P. Allis, both of Paris, were here Sunday.

Clark & Paul have to Cincinnati to close out their old tobacco.

Fred Dorch, of Arkansas, is the guest of his relative, Mrs. Henry Orr.

John Allen, of near Headquarters, is seriously ill with typhoid fever.

Miss Mollie Bland, of Mason, has arrived here to attend the Female College.

There is a scandal abroad to the effect that Summer lingers in the lap of Winter.

Prof. Bristow is again at the head of the music department of the Female College.

Mrs. T. A. Greer has left for St. Louis, after a protracted visit to Mrs. Fanny Hays.

Now that the town has an iron fence she will be satisfied with a wooden marsh.

Two members of the Cheatham family near Hooktown, each married a James Thompson.

Jas. M. Cellier has gone to Cincinnati and Louisville in the interest of the tobacco market.

Moral indications—Partly cloudy, with local sprinkles; wind due West with falling barometer.

Sam Watson will close out his billiard hall, and travel for Watson Bros. of Maysville, Oct. 1st.

Wm. Allen, of the Headquarters precinct, has sold his new crop of tobacco at 13 cents all around.

The meat house of Lebe Endicott, of Colville, neighborhood, was robbed last week of 18 pieces of meat.

Millersburg girls are the jolliest girls in the world—they wear Mother Hubbards just to make people laugh.

Jno. Mock having about run out of something to talk about, is paying ten cents each for "items of interest."

C. E. Brown and Jesse Payne will "do" Florida this winter. There will be a number of lectures next summer.

S. C. Carpenter will hunt with a new shot-gun this winter, having won it on his rapid roadster at Maysville fair.

The uptown belle says that a friend of hers "has extinguished herself by her preserve reformation on the piano."

J. G. Allen bought one of the fine Louisville Exposition monuments last week, for the lot of Mrs. Grosjean, at Paris.

The names of young fools who follow the boarders up and down street on Sunday evenings, will be published in this column.

The owner of the old stone factory should complete its removal. It has become an eye-sore and a reproach to the town.

A young man of this village, so it is said, will be presented to the grand jury on two charges for shooting with intent to kill.

Egnew & Allen, formerly of this place, shipped sixty washing machines from their house in Maysville, to a firm in Midway.

Simultaneous with the tobacco craze, arrived Messrs Bustle, Hoop, Shaggin, Drakes, Schnott, Ham, Insko, Legg, Bottom, Sands and Pottitt.

Willie McClintock, son of Thomas, had his horse to fall with him while on his way to school Friday morning and was severely bruised about his head.

Miss Edie Smith wore white muslin, lace and diamonds, and Miss Ida Collier lavender organdy and diamonds, at the Maysville fair hop Wednesday night.

The Millersburg correspondent to the Mercury is paid 75 cents per week; to the Kentucky stationer; but the News pays $8 for its Tuesday's column.

By actual count there were twenty-three women at the post-office Friday evening clamoring for the News. The number will be augmented this evening.

This Department has received "encouraging letters from Hal, Shelman, Pat Barnett, Charlie Purnell, and Sank Batson. All of them sent invitations to "Come out and take something."

Sam James, Jr., has bought out the grocery and butcher business from Judy & Lugels, and will take possession Oct. 1st. He will reside at the Kelly property, formerly occupied by Mrs. Victor.

The Misses Sallie Ball and Mattie Johnson posed for queens of the arena, on the flying-go-matting ponies in the public square, much to the amusement of the top-of-the-pot society here.

A certain "detective" writes to the head of the War Department that no woman shot Cargyle. The good natured citizen says the detective is a liar. The g. d. c. doubtless speaks the truth.

Miss Lizzie Mitch Miller has gone to St. Louis on a visit.

The wooden structure to the cow-gap on the railroad opposite Josh Barton's caught fire from the engine, one day last week and was enjoying a quiet blaze till discovered and quelled by Bob Miller.

The report that Willie Victor contemplated the purchase and consolidation of J. G. Allen's and Smedley & Butler's dry goods houses, with a view to having a grand emporium, is probably a mistake.

Mrs. Geo. P. Dudley, of Fleming county, formerly Miss Annie Wallace, of this place, is now resting under the quieting influences of a rousing, big, squalling "he" boy baby. "My wife's sister, Mr. Smith, &c., &c."

The boys had chartered Wade's traction engine, intending to hook wagons to it and make an excursion to the Licks, but W. W. Baldwin ordered the till gates closed on the Caravan so the project was abandoned.

Before the rain, Joe Batson wouldn't retire until all of the regular trains had passed his house and then he got up for all of the extras. Joe has recently improved his residence and don't care about having it burned.

Bob Moore, formerly, of Dry Ridge, Grant County, educated here by Dr. Geo. Savage, at the Male and Female Seminary, of old, died of typhoid fever a short time ago, at the residence of his bachelor uncle, near Georgetown.

W. H. H. Johnson, of the Johnson House, wants to engage another housekeeper. Mrs. McCormick is very ill at Flemingsburg, and will probably not never be in such health as will permit her to return to her situation.

Mrs. Frank Payne, having been fined in police court for using unclean language in an animated discussion with a colored lady, has sought a new field for playing the fiddle and some other little instruments, and has moved to Carlisle.

Several ten-thousand-dollar widows who got so poor that they had to stop their papers last Christmas, have borrowed the News right along semi-weekly, and have kept diligently apace with the villainous publications all the same.

If those two lazy white men and two lazy coons can't do anything better than operate a "flying Dutchman" in the city park, they might as well be looking for quiet graves. Of course the town council did not encourage such an enterprise.

Geo. W. Denny, a journeyman tailor well-known here for years, died suddenly at Flemingsburg, Friday afternoon. He was a finely read old man from New York State, in his youthful days, and was noted for being a great fisherman.

Miss Fanny Clarke wore cream satin, black velvet and pearl passamenterie; Miss Mollie Knight, terra cotta satin, black Spanish lace and pea-green ribbons, and Mrs. Bettie F. Redmon black satin Mavelense and diamonds, at the Maysville fair hop Friday night.

Our town paid out $800 for an iron fence for a public square, and the cost will be nearly a $100 more if it ever gets put up. Now consider a hog hole for a school house, with 65 scholars in attendance! Oh, ye chivalrous Kentuckians who would cut a man's throat for calling you mean or illiberal!

Twenty-five years ago, Charlie Miller took the premium for being the best boy rider at the Maysville fair. On Saturday last he took the second premium in the fat man's riding ring. He wore no pants in consequence of the flood of rain, but his high-topped boots and a long gum coat covered up a multitude of Wamusetta cotton.

The reason why Col. Bug Oliver wears the appellation of "Col." is, that he came with one vote of being elected colonel of the 35 North Carolina militia regiment before the "wah." And the reason of being called "Bug" was that he was a mere plebeian, or commoner—not a "big bug," though he once possessed more than the average wealth of the ordinary merchant.

The young single men of this village are setting up the drinks to themselves and shaking their own hands—so happy that they are not married. The slovenly appearance of some of the young wives in this neck of the timber has made the boys somewhat shy of the connubial state. The maiden should petition the dames to pay more attention to their toilet.

When the town can afford a good martial promiscuous shooting will be prohibited; vulgar negroes not allowed to sit under white people's windows and howl like prairie wolves; contemptible white ruffians dispersed whenever they congregate on the sidewalk and act like Sioux Indians; Sally Ball and Mattie Johnson will be run in seven nights out of each week for filthy conduct and obscene language on the street; the police judgship will be something more than a nominal office; decency and order will prevail and Millersburg people will thank God as grateful flocks should. The War Department will uphold the officer who strives to do his duty, but should he fall short of this, the lash shall whistle about his ears and his naked and shrinking back flogging until it is a thing but a palpitating mass of moral scars. It is time for lawlessness to cease, and citizens who value quiet homes and peaceful slumbers are ready to unite and demand that the present condition of affairs be largely—very largely—improved.
